Dr. Steve Williams has lectured extensively in the USA, Australia and Europe on the subject of pediatrics and craniopathy. He has helped to develop and teach the MSc APD program in Chiropractic Pediatrics at the Anglo-European College of Chiropractic (AECC) and authored the book Pregnancy and Paediatrics: A Chiropractic Approach. Steve presented for several years a 36 hour certification course at Logan College of Chiropractic. This popular seminar series has been run in Southampton, England for the past five years and has always sold out. Material is updated every year as Steve develops his work.

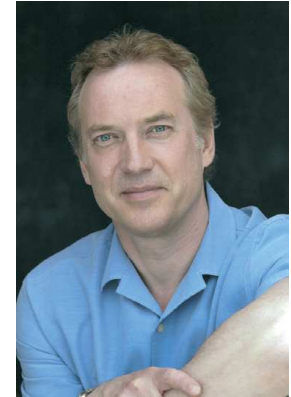

Typical selection of 2011 course critiques: ... “Excellent seminar, good balance, right amount of information, mentally challenging.” “Fantastic seminar.” “Excellent pictorial representation of cranial motion/pivots.” “A delightful weekend!” “Easy to follow cranial techniques.” “Inspiring.” “I really appreciate Steve’s style of talking. He is clear and direct and makes sense out of complicated material.” “The references are superb and a great help in the current climate of regulation.” “Thoroughly enjoyable.”

Steve is a world renowned pediatric chiropractor with a superb understanding both of his subject and of effective teaching aids and techniques. He presents an astonishing amount of material in a very accessible format which is suitable for all types of learning styles, creating a relaxed atmosphere which is conducive to learning. He encourages questions throughout the sessions where clarification is needed. Feedback from the course appraisal forms frequently comment very positively on Steve’s clarity, depth of knowledge, excellent delivery, the value of the practical sessions and so on.
