Bayside Chiropractic, P.C.
291 Waterman Street, Providence, R.I.

Paul J. O'Brien, Jr., D.C., graduated from Logan College of Chiropractic in August 1999. He has achieved Advanced Certification in Sacro-Occipital Technique and has completed advanced training in Soft Tissue Orthopedics and Craniopathy. He is licensed in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Dr. O'Brien is originally from the Boston area. He graduated from American University in 1991 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in philosophy and criminal justice. He worked as an insurance broker until 1994, when he decided to pursue a chiropractic education.

Dr. O'Brien is in private practice on the East Side of Providence, where he enjoys working with infants, children, adolescents, adults and older adults to obtain and maintain optimum health. He volunteers for local events such as road races, health fairs, and the Gravity Games as medical staff. He has also volunteered with the Red Cross and FEMA in response to the September 11th terrorist attacks.

Dr. O'Brien is a member in good standing of the Chiropractic Society of Rhode Island, Sacro-Occipital Research Society International, International Systemic Health Organization, International Chiropractic Association, and the International Chiropractic Association Council on Pediatrics. He is a SORSI board member from 2004 - 2010. Dr. O'Brien serves on the Chiropractic Committee at Women and Infants Hospital in Providence, R.I., where he also maintains staff privileges. He is a board member of the Rhode Island Birth Network since 2007. In 2007, he co-founded Friends of SOT™, a study group that sponsors SOT™ seminars.
